An Enjoyable Excursion,

When the steamer Charles Macalester, Captain Blake, left at 7 o'clock last night on an excursion trip to Marshall Hall its decks were crowded with a large and merry party—the hosts of friends of the Washington Light Infan-try Corps. It was the first moonlight excursion of the season of the battailon. and was in every sense a success. The members of the corps committees were:
Executive—C. H. Kettler, Jesse B. K.
Lee, P. M. Kemmerly, P. Schneider, A.
M. Muzzy, Floor—C. M. Loeffler,
Charles W. King, Jr., John Endus, Jr.,

THE WASHINGTONS BEGIN THE SERIES IN BALTIMORE.

ULLIVAN IS SANGUINE OF SUCCESS.

We May Go Into Sixth Place To-Day ... The Wilmington Club Not To Be Sold.

The Washington Club did not have a cheduled game yesterday, and so it reains relatively the same position in the race as it did the previous day. At the present time. Washington occupies fifth place by a very narrow margin, and If it should lose to-day and Jersey City win, we will gible toto sixth place with the same degree of smoothness that has characterized our downward arcer since the trip began.

Sullivan wisely refrained from play log an exhibition game at Trenton yea-terday and allowed the men to take a rest. They needed it. A number of Washingtonians, who are thoroughbred cranks on the subject of baseball, went over to Baltimore this morning to see the boys to up Mr. Barnie's aggregation. It is to be hoped they will see their wishes fulfilled. Daniels and Riddle will be the battery for the local team and Townsend.

Suillyan is not at all cost down by the Sullivan is not at all cast down by the defeats which have been heaped upon his men, and attributes them to a temporary lack of power at the bat and the occurrence of many peculiar plays, which interfered with success. "The Washington Club is still playing ball," said Ted. "The teams from our city always could defeat the Baltimores, and I don't believe the luck has ekansmed. always could defeat the Baltimores, and I don't believe the luck has changed. We are going to do well in the series there, and when we get the other clubs in our slaughter pen you want to watch us. Ted evidently forgets the other slaughter pens in which he and his team have figured so prominently during the past three weeks.

course, you've all read What the papers have said:
"We're too strong for the Atlantic."
But the tables have turned
And the public has learned
"That we're not quite so gigantic.

But the time is now near
When at home they'll appear—
Not so strong, but still in the ring,
And with a strong, steady game,
First place we'll reclaim—
"We're too strong," again we'll all sing.
